Dear Dr Sergio Rene Sanchez-Pena,

It's not too late to renew your Kansas Entomological Society membership for 2019.

As a member, you receive the Journal of the Kansas Entomological Society four times per year, plus the eligibility to submit manuscripts for publication in the Journal. Affiliation with colleagues who share your interests and opportunities to attend and present at the annual meetings allow you to network with like-minded people locally, nationally, and internationally.

Please visit the KES business office website to renew online. Alternatively, you may return your linked RENEWAL FORM with payment via mail to:

Kansas Entomological Society
PO Box 7065
Lawrence, KS 66044-7065

If you have any questions concerning your renewal or have trouble logging in, please contact us at knts@allenpress.com or by phone at (785) 865-9405.

Best Regards,
Kansas Entomological Society Business Office
