Members of the Texas A&M University Chapter of Gamma Sigma Delta, the international Honor Society of Agriculture, have selected you for membership. On behalf of the Society, I have the privilege of extending to you a cordial invitation for your acceptance.

The purpose of Gamma Sigma Delta is to promote and recognize achievements of individuals who excel. Your election to the Society is more than an honor. It is a challenge and an obligation to contribute to the understanding and furthering of agriculture and related sciences that include, but are not limited to, life sciences, forestry, natural resources, and veterinary medicine.

Initiation into Gamma Sigma Delta requires the payment of both local dues ($10.00) and international dues ($10.00). The international dues are paid only once -- the year of initiation, while local dues are payable annually for those who wish to remain active in our local chapter. The initiation ceremonies and banquet will be on Tuesday, March 27, 2001, beginning at 6:30 pm with a reception and followed by the dinner at 7:00 pm in Room 201 of the MSC. At that time new initiates will be recognized, and special awards will be presented. The cost of the banquet is $15.00 per person, and guests are invited to attend.

Election to membership is a tribute to you and an honor for all of us in the Society. We sincerely hope that you will decide to join and to attend the Initiation and Awards Banquet. If you decide to join us, please complete the attached form, and return it to me by Monday, February 12, 2001. Please contact me at 845-3712 or k-kubena@tamu.edu or Dr. Cady Engler, Chapter President, at 845-3685, if you have any questions.

Sincerely yours,

Karen S. Kubena, Secretary
Professor and Associate Dean
