Para: martin.cadena@uaaan.edu.mx

Martin Cadena-Zapata, martin.cadena@uaaan.edu.mx

Dear Martin

Congratulations, your Submission ID 1901801 "Effect of conservation and conventional tillage in physical properties of a clay loam soil under beans (Phaseolus vulgaris) in a semiarid area of Mexico" has been accepted for presentation in the POSTER SESSIONS - session 115 MS-Advances in Tillage, Seeding, and Transplanting Technology POSTER SESSION at the 2019 Annual International Meeting. The session day and times are listed at www.asabemeetings.org.

Next steps

As the submitting author, YOU are the only one receiving this notification regarding this abstract. Please be sure that you communicate with the presenting author the registration requirements and that you complete the abstract submission process by following the following instructions. The submission site is reopened for you to start completing these.

Final edits to your title and co-authors, and designation of who is presenting (e.g. corresponding author) should be made before May 1 by logging into the submission site at <https://www.eiseverywhere.com/eSites/2019aim/Homepage>. In addition, you have the option of submitting a full proceeding paper through the submission site, but you must do so before the May 1 deadline. After May 1, the submission site will close and no further edits or uploads will be allowed. Full proceedings papers that are properly uploaded by this deadline will be available in ASABE's Technical Library during the AIM. Please use the template provided at the submission site to load your paper. Paper upload is not mandatory.

Presenters must register for the meeting prior to May 1 to secure your presentation time. If the designated presenter is not registered by this deadline the abstract will be removed from the final program. Be sure to communicate this with your presenter.

At the meeting

You will have 15 minutes for presentation and discussion (12-13 minutes presentation, 2-3 minutes questions), unless otherwise advised. Presentations can be loaded to the supplied laptop in PowerPoint format 15 minutes prior to the beginning of the session start time. Expect to arrive early to complete this, files will not be allowed to upload after the start of the session.

If you are no longer able to commit to presenting, please let Jessica Bell, bell@asabe.org know. Your abstract will be removed from the program.

Please contact us to request your login credentials or if you have any questions.
